

Dealership Opportunities

Would you like to become a FIM dealer?

FIM Manufacturing Group, has a distribution network that covers forty countries around the world, FIM's production is based 100% in Italy, and has become one of the fastest growing companies in the world.

A major contributor to FIM's strong growth is the division FIM Flexy and Flexy Zen. FIM's success is built on a reputation for designing and manufacturing top quality shade systems which offers exceptional value all over the world.

But this success is not due to FIM alone. Key partners in our business are the dealers who market, support and service the products we build.

We are a dynamic organization with great and ambitious Dealers' expansion plans in North America in the years to come. We are looking for dealers who have a strong reputation in their market and can work with us to achieve our common goals.

We are looking for dedicated dealer

We are looking for dealers who are actively involved in the day-to-day operations of their business and are passionate about developing and growing their business with a leader in the patio and garden industry.

We are looking for full service dealers

Our business is focused on providing our customers only the very best products and services available. We strive to provide all of our customers with unmatched support – from providing professional advice to training customers how to get the most from the shade systems we offer. We are looking for full service dealers who want to give all their customers only the very best we can offer.

We are looking for dealers who want to grow with us

The success of FIM Manufacturing Group, depends on the success of our partners in business. We are a dynamic and a growing company, and we seek dealers whose ambition it is to be outstanding in their business and to continue to develop and grow.
